

Background

Shiro Takagi

2021/4/12

1 question

Q: How to make an intelligent system that learns to manipulate symbols?

2 background

The biggest difference between human and other animals are the capability to manipulate symbols syntactically. Dogs and chimps understand semantics of symbols but only human seem to deal with syntax. Thus, a human-level artificial intelligent system has to learn to manipulate symbol.